Designated as an important cultural asset of Japan, this shrine has a history that stretches back around 1,300 years. A general of the Genji clan, Kiso Yoshinaka (Minamoto no Yoshinaka), once went there to offer a prayer for victory in the war against the Heike clan.

Poised 100 meters above the ground, the observation floor of the 118-meter-tall Crossland Tower affords magnificent views of the Tateyama mountain range, the dispersed settlements and rice fields of the Tonami Plain, and the fairytale architecture found throughout the city.

Merugyu-kun and Merumomo-chan - the mascots of Oyabe welcome visitors to the summit of Mt.Inaba,a 346-meter peak that can be driven to in under 10 minutes from the Mitsui Outlet Park Hokuriku Oyabe shopping mall.The summit's wonderful views of the Tateyama mountain range and the area's dispersed settlements are not to be missed.
